

International Society for International Architecture
Archaeology, Art and Summer School in Abruzzo
Architecture of Rome

17-27 July 2020

ISAR announces an international summer school in the town of Castelvecchio Calvisio, in Italy's mountainous Abruzzo region, open to architecture students of all levels (including continuing education). The program is offered in partnership with the Interrupted City project and Özyeğin University DRUM laboratory and is part of ISAR's Borgo Abruzzo initiative.

The sequence of lessons, taught in English both in the classroom and on-site, are intended to provide students with hands-on skills in methods of architectural documentation, conservation and valorization of cultural heritage sites. The laboratory will focus on the near-abandoned medieval village of Castelvecchio Calvisio, part of the cluster of towns known as the Baronia di Carapelle.

Students will work in a choice of research areas:

- Documentation (using laser scanner and photogrammetry)
- Historical research (including hypothetical reconstructions)
- Restoration (creation of a conservation plan)
- Valorization (architectural designs for needed site structures)

Each of these pedagogic components will combine clear, illustrated instruction by experts in the field with readings, interactive discussions and practical applications.
