

SHORT-TERM JOINT STAFF TRAINING EVENT

Learning from Creativity and Culture in Middle-Size Danubian Cities

Activity: C2

Teachers' and Other University Staff's Call

LEADING ORGANISATION

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE – FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE

www.bg.ac.rs/en

Co-organiser: CITY OF SOMBOR – “PROSTOR” PE

Supporter – Associate Partner: SERBIAN TOWN PLANNER ASSOCIATION – STPA

DURATION

June 15-17, 2021

LOCATION

SOMBOR, SERBIA / ŽUPANIJA (COUNTRY) BUILDING

PROJECT

CREATIVE DANUBE: INNOVATIVE TEACHING FOR INCLUSIVE DEVELOPMENT IN SMALL AND MEDIUM-SIZED DANUBIAN CITIES

<https://danubian-smcs.uauim.ro>

INTRO

This second short-term joint staff training event aims to connect the university teachers of the participating organization an exchange of experiences to bring feedback on outputs drafts, dealing with the next issues in the field of inclusive development in small and medium-sized Danubian cities that lead to achieve of new theoretical methods/ guidelines through an innovative and cross-disciplinary body of knowledge, able to adapt to the complex changes in the actual post-industrial SMCs along Danube. According with their profile, teachers will acquire an active role in developing their educational resources using intelligent methodologies and formats. This collaborative process of creating the teaching material will allow to register the common problems within the SMCs and to bring on appropriate solutions.

TARGET GROUP	Teachers involved in C2 SP-HESHORT- Short-term will be active in teaching/learning/ training activities and intellectual outputs, in order to get an input by preparing the teaching materials and tasks for the students. In addition, there will be also participation in the post—processing Intensive Program at the home universities, by evaluating the teaching laboratories.
EXPECTED RESULTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Strategies for interdisciplinary teaching: Contextualizing, Conceptualizing and Problem based; b) Maintenance of depth in interdisciplinary approach; c) Incorporation of interdisciplinary into the teaching; d) Crucial role of interpersonal and communication skills; e) Challenges of teaching intercultural mixed students; f) How to involve students in the production of the teaching material (peer-teaching).
ELIGIBILITY	A successful applicant should be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - involved in teaching the theoretical and / or practical disciplines related to the development of the built environment - interested in innovation in university education - capable of trans & cross disciplinary approaches - concerned about the inclusive and balanced development of the Danube corridor - sensitive to the problems, particularities and opportunities for the development of small and medium-sized cities
NUMBER OF PLACES	4
APPLICATION	Application should be submitted as a separate mail with Curriculum Vitae Europass or compatible CV to contact person: Ružica Pavlič, IRO, University of Belgrade – Faculty of Architecture, Email: ruca@arh.bg.ac.rs All documents have to be in English. The Short-term joint staff training event will be held in English Language; therefore, attendees must have a good command of the English language. All applicants will have an interview to clarify their application details if the number of applicants exceeds available places (more than 4 applications). The interview will be preliminary held on Tuesday, June 1, 2021. Please, call the contact person for the further details about the interview details.
DEADLINE	30.05.2021 23:59
CONTACT PERSON	Ružica Pavlič, International Relations Office (IRO), University of Belgrade – Faculty of Architecture Email: ruca@arh.bg.ac.rs / Phone: +381113218767
COMMITTEE OF SELECTION	Prof. Dr. Ana Nikezić, Prof. Dr. Aleksandra Stupar

More details about the project here: <https://danubian-smcs.uauim.ro>

More details about the KA2 funding grants will be found here:

<http://www.erasmusplus.ro/invatamant-universitarparteneriate>.

